Dear Hugh:

I am submitting a proposal for an Area of Emphasis in French Studies under the major in French for your approval, pending further approval by the University Curriculum Committee. This proposal is in keeping with current pedagogical trends in U.S. and European universities. As you can see, the students who opt for this Area will be able-if they wish-to take some classes outside of the Department of Romance Languages that have French content but that are given in English.

Sincerely,

Noel Fallows, Professor and Head
